

February 4, 1975

PRESIDENT: Is there any objection? Seeing none, unanimous consent is granted.

CLERK: Then, Mr. President, the Appropriations Committee reports on LB 233 that it's been reported to the floor and advanced to General File. Signed, Senator Marvel, Chairman.

Mr. President, your committee in Revenue resets hearings for February 12th. Signed, Senator Cal Carsten, Chairman.

That's all Mr. President. The motion to adjourn.

PRESIDENT: Before the Speaker addresses you, when we commence tomorrow on this matter, we are discussing 171 which is Senator Stoney's bill. It is the Goodrich amendment to the Chambers amendment. Chair recognizes the Speaker, Senator Burbach.

SPEAKER: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I do not want to take much of your time at this moment because it is time to adjourn. However, tomorrow morning I will have placed on your desk, and so will Senator Lewis, a report of our trip to Washington D.C., Sunday afternoon and all day yesterday. I mentioned on Friday that I would like to discuss with you this morning, on Tuesday morning, about the procedural changes of the Legislature. I will provide that after . . . I did not do it this morning because I had not consulted with Senator DeCamp on the rule changes necessary. He now has them and he will bring them and present them to the Rules Committee and we will be more in a better position tomorrow morning to discuss the procedural changes and the rule changes.

One other thing. I do want to take the opportunity to thank the Nebraska Farmer for providing us with their issue and their publication from time to time. But it does create a problem on the floor as they are handed out to the legislators. I would suggest that the Sergeant-at-Arms be instructed to have these people who bring them and deliver them to us, to deliver them to our office instead of to our desk.

I move we adjourn to 10:00 tomorrow morning.

PRESIDENT: There's a motion to adjourn until 10:00 tomorrow. All those in favor signify by saying aye. Contrary. We are adjourned.

Adjourned.
